Technology

Go-go gadgets

Mobile devices are their most effective business enabler say 75% of this year's Top 50 CEOs. Sure, some of them still do things the old-fashioned way – such as sending handwritten personal notes. But the majority say losing their smartphone would be equivalent to losing their right arm. Given the choice, some would probably rather lose the arm.

75% MOBILE DEVICES

Smartphone	46%	Internet	8%
Tablet	14%	Desktop computer	6%
Unspecified device	12%	Industry specific machinery	4%
Laptop	3%	Software	3%
